DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

In claim 1, line 3 the limitation of "finders" is not understood and it appears should be --fingers--.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Koffler et al. Koffler et al. shows an ambidextrous utensil or mitt (see page 1, column 2, line 13) with a pocket 10 for receiving four fingers up to substantially the second joint (see page 1, column 2, line 5) and a pocket 11 for receiving a thumb, the utensil formed of a flexible material (see page 1, column 1, line 54).

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 103

5. The following is a quotation of 35 U.S.C. 103(a) which forms the basis for all obviousness rejections set forth in this Office action:

Art Unit: 3765

(a) A patent may not be obtained though the invention is not identically disclosed or described as set forth in section 102 of this title, if the differences between the subject matter sought to be patented and the prior art are such that the subject matter as a whole would have been obvious at the time the invention was made to a person having ordinary skill in the art to which said subject matter pertains. Patentability shall not be negated by the manner in which the invention was made.

6. Claim 2 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Koffler et al. in view of Suzuki.

Koffler et al. does not teach forming the utensil of plastic. Suzuki teaches that it is old in the art of hand implements to form the utensil of plastic (see column 4, line 61). It would have been obvious to form the utensil of Koffler et al. of plastic in the manner of Suzuki since one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention would readily have recognized the advantage of plastic construction in enhancing the durability of the utensil while retaining its flexibility.

7. Claims 3, 5 and 6 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Koffler et al. in view of Vandermer.

Vandermer teaches that it is old to provide color to a utensil 10 (see column 1, line 65). It would have been obvious to provide the utensil of Koffler et al. with a particular color in the manner of Vandermer to achieve the advantage of distinguishing the utensil from a utensil of a different color. With respect to claim 6 Vandermer teaches old opposing flat surfaces as shown in Figure 3. It would have been obvious to provide that the opposing surfaces of the pockets of Koffler et al. be flat in the manner of the opposing surfaces of the pockets of Vandermer since one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention would readily have recognized the expedience of flat surfaces in affording a like engagement of a member to be grasped as shown by Vandermer.

8. Claim 4 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 103(a) as being unpatentable over Koffler et al. in view of Jones.

Art Unit: 3765

Koffler et al. does not teach forming the utensil of paper as claimed. Jones teaches old in the art of hand implements the interchangeability of paper and plastic or rubber-like material (see column 3, lines 12-15). It would have been obvious to form the utensil of Koffler et al. of paper in the manner of Jones since one of ordinary skill in the art at the time of the invention would readily have recognized the expedience of paper in permitting a cheaper and more disposable utensil.

Allowable Subject Matter

9. Claim 7 would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

10. Applicant's arguments with respect to claims 1-7 have been considered but are moot in view of the new ground(s) of rejection.

Conclusion

11. Applicant's amendment necessitated the new ground(s) of rejection presented in this Office action. Accordingly, THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. See MPEP § 706.07(a). Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37

Art Unit: 3765

CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the date of this final action.
